MONDAY MORNING NOV 30 1863

Wonderful Discovery

The Eugene City Review says that Ex Governor Whiteaker lately "delivered a forcible, logical, convincing and very interesting speech," and the editor further states that "he," that is the Ex Gov — demonstrated by incontrovertible data, that the Republican party was entirely responsible for the war, and that Mr Lincoln by cunning and bad faith, precipitated the unnatural strife Just think of that ! Our Ex Gov proved that the Republican party was responsible for what was done, while Old Pub Func was in office, and he did it with those terrible "data," too And then he proved how sly and wicked the President has been, in precipitating this unnatural war ! Who would have thought that the quiet and easy going Ex Gov, at his pleasant home on Pleasant Hill, was deeply ruminating on affairs of State, and preparing to come down, "like a wolf on the fold," with his awful and incontrovertible weapons, upon the sinful Republican party and the cunning and faithless 'Old Abe" The party cannot stand it. The President's hour of annihilation is at hand, for the Ex Gov has used his logic, and what can resist such a terrific force It is overwhelming, we feel that we are going up the flume, though as yet we know nothing but what we have seen in the Review That is enough, however, to fill us with fear It is a great thing, Ex Gov, to have a giant's strength, but we pray you to use it gently, and not seek to crush us all at once Cannot you publish that speech in slices, so that common minds, which have long been deceived may gradually attain the same wonderful knowledge, which enabled you to make such a demonstration ? Why did not the Ex Gov. shake his 'data' through the land, and stop the people from sustaining this unnatural strife ? If he had done so, how many precious lives might have been saved, how calm and prosperous the current of our National existence would have been, for of course the people would have repudiated the wicked Republicans and have insisted on the impeachment of the cunning Chief Magistrate, who made such an awful war Verily, the Ex Gov. is guilty in this thing of gross negligence and a cruel want of patriotism, when he might so easily have saved the Nation, "dried up" the Republican party and sent Mr. Lincoln to the gallows, or a prison, or—back to Illinois.

Vallandigham's Treason.

The following letter, written by the prince of Northern traitors, to a rebel Colonel, was found in the papers of the latter, captured recently in Tennessee

Dear Colonel—Your kind note and invitation of yesterday was this morning handed me by your brother in law who will hand you this in return It would give me much pleasure to visit you and your command before leaving the Confederacy, but it is now impossible to do so, as I have made arrangements to start this A M with the earliest train for Wilmington

You surmise correctly, when you say that you believe me to be the friend of the South in her struggle for freedom. My feelings have been publicly expressed in my own country, in that quotation from London Chatham—"My Lords, you cannot conquer America !" There is not a drop of Puritan blood in my veins. I hate, despise, and defy the tyrannical Government which has sent me among you for my opinion's sake, and shall never give it my support in its crusade upon your institutions But you are mistaken when you say there are but few men in the United States, North Thousands are there who would speak out but for the military despotism that strangles them.

Although the contest has been, and will continue to be, a bloody one, you have but to persevere and the victory will surely be yours You must strike home ! The defensive policy lengthens the contest. The shortest road to peace is the boldest one You can have your own terms by gaining the battle on your enemy's soil

Accept my kind regards for your personal welfare, and sincere thanks for your kind wishes in my behalf, and hoping and praying for the ultimate cause in which you are fighting, believe me, as ever

Your friend, C L VALLANDIGHAM

Col D D. INGALLS 8th Ala Vols

The vile creature who expressed such sympathy for the rebellion, and prays for its success, is the same who was supported by the democratic party of Ohio, at the late election What must the followers be of such a leader ? He is the same, also, whose election was preferred by an Oregon Senator, above that of an abolitionist,—a preference, which a Federal officer in Washington Territory regards as unobjectionable, and entirely consistent with Union sentiments, and with fidelity to the administration We do not wonder at the official's opinion, nothing better was expected from him He is a mere flunkey, and has no principle, but we trust the Senator, when he sees the above letter, will conclude that he made a mistake, and that the election of the most radical abolitionist was to be desired rather than that of such a demon rebel as his own words prove Vallandigham to be

EXECUTION OF A [illegible] —The Jacksonville papers report that George, one of the Chiefs of some of the tribes in Southern Oregon, was recently arrested in that place by order of Col Drew, and taken to camp Baker, when after a summary examination, developing abundant proof of his guilt as a murderer, he was summarily hung It is likely that some other murderers of the same race will shortly have an opportunity to expiate their crimes in a similar manner

CLARK COUNTY, W T —A J Lawrence has resigned the office of Probate Judge, and H G Strure has been appointed as his successor.

BOISE NEWS —From the Boise News of the 14th November, we gather the following items

George Owen the man who stabbed and killed T D Williams, the Marshal at Bannock, has had an examination and was committed to jail to answer the charge of murder Williams funeral was the most numerously attended of any affair of the kind that has ever come off in the Basin Between five and six hundred persons appeared in the procession

A report is current at Placerville that a party of six men who left that place for Umatilla had been murdered, and that their horses had been found on the road

There is a general complaint of sickness in the Boise country The editor says " Having resided either in the mines or contiguous to them for the last 14 years, and having good opportunities for observing the health of different mining localities, we feel safe in saying that no place on the Pacific coast ever before had so much sickness to the number of inhabitants as has prevailed in this Basin for the last four weeks Typhoid pneumonia and fever are the most numerous diseases and we regret to have to record the fact that in a large number of cases it has proved fatal Exposure is no doubt the main cause of so much illness at this season of the year Parties taken with a chill are too apt to regard it as a trifling matter and neglect attending to it until it is too late for medical relief

I W Deckard died at the International Hotel in Placerville, on the 4th inst in the 2[illegible] year of his age Deceased was from Albany Oregon A small memorandum book found in his pocket revealed his name and residence as well as the fact that he had been in the employ of T J Worster

Some very fine specimens of quartz from the Esmeralda lode South Boise have been exhibited at Bannock This ledge was discovered by Mr John Burke it is situated some sixty feet below the Idaho and has been traced and found to be well defined for six hundred feet Some four shafts have already been sunk, and found not materially to vary in richness, to any of them We are assured by old Washoe miners, that the poorest rock in the ledge will pay $50, and the best probably $1,000 The rock resembles that taken from the celebrated Wide West, only it is vastly superior in richness

The News says that Comstock of Washoe notoriety, is still discovering rich leads, but they do him no more good than his Washoe mines did All Comstock seems to care for is to develop the country and let others reap the benefit of his enterprise Money is no object with him but he has too much energy to eke out a miserable existence anywhere

Accounts from Jordon creek and elsewhere on the Owhee are very encouraging W H Taft assures us that placer mines of great richness exist on Jordan and all the streams contiguous to it Mr T has been mining on Jordan creek some ten months and knows whereof he speaks There is no kind of doubt as to the richness of the country

In the Owyhee precinct Cummings received five majority, the number of votes cast was 111

A butcher by the name of Johnson, died very suddenly at Bannock on the 3d inst Deceased formerly kept a butcher shop in San Francisco where he leaves a wife and children

The News notices the capture of an Eagle that measured 7 feet 6 inches from tip to tip

WHAT DO THEY MEAN ?—Peace Democrats are constantly pretending to be in favor of "the Union as it was, and the Constitution as it is," and yet in the same breath they insist that the South cannot be conquered by force, and that not a man, woman, or child in the rebel States is in favor of a return to the Union, and therefore the war should be stopped, and we should consent to a dis union and separation, final and eternal How then do they propose to have "the Union as it was ?" Their policy leads directly to the dismemberment of the country, and they refuse to give their support to that adopted by the government, which is the only one that can preserve our national integrity and restore the Union If they will not do this, it must be because they do not honestly desire such a restoration or the maintainance of that grand and powerful integrity which has made our nation the greatest in the world and because they are as much traitors at heart, as the rebels themselves.

COMING TO THE POINT —D S Dickinson, the old war horse of New York Democracy—the man whom some of our Pacific Democracy desired nominated for President in place of Douglas, said at a late meeting in New York

"He said 'Constitution' as long as the South had said 'Constitution,' but when they said 'arms,' he said 'arms.' We might as well expect to preserve the frosts of Winter through the dog days, as to preserve slavery longer. He was as much in favor of thoroughly and completely abolishing slavery as he had been for preserving it. He had been in favor of waiting the Almighty's time The rebels preferred to take the devil's time, and there was now no saving it His only objection to the Emancipation Proclamation was that it should have been returnable immediately."

Of course, slavery cannot be preserved, and what is more, loyal men don't want to preserve it. None but traitors and Peace Democrats cry out, "save it !"

FORT WALLA WALLA —The following is a correct list of the Regiments, Companies and their respective officers that are now stationed at Fort Walla Walla, Headquarters W T Infantry, Col Justin Steinberger, commanding

Company "A," 1st W T Inf'y —Captain, W W Thompson, 1st Lieutenant, J W Clawson, 2d Lieutenant, A E Woodson

Company "H, 1st W T Inf'y —Captain, Wm Mason, 1st Lieutenant, Smith, 2d Lieutenant Sanborn

The above named companies, we learn will remain at the Fort during the coming winter The general health of the officers and men is good The hospital is kept in the best hygienic condition and the list of the sick is getting small —Walla Walla Statesman

BANKS ON THE RIO GRANDE —There is not a State in Dixie in which the old "banner of beauty and glory" is not now unfurled By the capture of Brownsville, Texas, the circle is made complete "The charm's wound up" It appears that Banks managed to deceive Kirby Smith and Magruder as to the direction from which the advance would be made The bulk of the rebel forces were in the eastern part of the State expecting Franklin's expedition to come overland, and Banks to land at Sabine Pass Hence the capture of the most important depot of supplies in Texas was easily taken It is gratifying to learn that we have a National force, however small, on the Rio Grande This little army of occupation will destroy the contraband trade, rally, arm and organize the Unionists of Texas and hasten the reconstruction of the State upon free and loyal principles —Union

SUNDAY WEATHER ITEM —The early morning yesterday was chilly and overcast, threatening a miserable, non church attending day By the ringing of the "second bell," however, the atmosphere became more genial, the foggy clouds dispersed, and old sol lent the force of his unimpeded rays to dry the mudded avenues which were now thronging with church goers After the close of divine service, promenades became quite popular, and many gratified an unsabbatical inclination to enjoy the sunlight and gentle breeze together on the Willamette, which in front of the town presented quite a lively appearance with the fleet of skiffs and canoes, wherries and color-bedecked sloops, as they glided hither and yon through the scarce rippling stream. Along toward dusk, quite a dense curtain of fog descended, and for a time the range of vision was confined to a few rods The curtain by and bye was rolled away, the obscurity became less palpable, and the stars peeped forth with a twinkle as merry as when they "sang together" near two thousand years ago.

STABBING AFFRAY —A difficulty occurred on Saturday morning at the Eureka Saloon, Front street, near the Court House, in which the bar keeper, named White, was cut in the left side by a man named Kerrigan The circumstances, as near as we could learn, were as follows Kerrigan and a partner or friend entered the saloon, where the latter, who was drunk, became so boisterous that an effort was made to expel him. During the scuffle, Kerrigan drew a knife, and stabbed White in the left side, inflicting a wound the nature or extent of which we did not learn. We are told, however, that it is not regarded as dangerous Kerrigan was arrested by the Sheriff and taken before Recorder McCoy, who held him to bail in the sum of $100 to appear at the next term of the Circuit Court The prisoner deposited the money, and went his way Proceedings were subsequently instituted against him with a view to the recovery of damages, and a search was made for Kerrigan, but at last accounts he had not turned up, and is now more than likely on the steamer for San Francisco.

SAILING OF THE PACIFIC —The steamer Pacific, Capt Burns, did not get away until yesterday morning at 9 o clock, when she sailed for San Francisco direct, full of freight and crowded with passengers. She was compelled to refuse a large quantity of freight, and all the applicants for passage after ten o'clock on Saturday morning Consequently quite a cargo now awaits the arrival of the next steamer, due to night.

GOLD DUST —Wells, Fargo & Co 's messenger per Wilson G Hunt, on Saturday evening, brought down 125 pounds of dust. Between eighty and ninety passengers came, many of whom were very "well to do" in the way of pocket change.

SAILED —The barkentine Jane A. Falkenberg, Capt. Wiggin, was towed from Oak Point to the mouth of the Columbia by the Couch, on Friday evening, and sailed for San Francisco on Saturday morning, with lumber and piles

FOR WESTPORT —The bark Helen W. Almy, Capt Freeman, will to-day take on board a lot of apples, and to morrow drop down in tow of the steamer John H Couch to West's Mill, where she will load 250M feet of lumber for San Francisco

TREASURE PER PACIFIC —Wells, Fargo & Co shipped on the steamer yesterday, the sum of $240,000 It being Sunday when the boat left, we could not ascertain the amount on the freight list of her Agents, Messrs. Allen & Lewis We shall endeavor to give the figures complete to morrow.

THEATRICAL TO-NIGHT.—"London Assurance" and "Loan of a Lover" will be presented this evening, Miss Fannie Morgan appearing as Lady Gay Spanker in the former, and Gertrude in the latter. Mr. Waldron as Sir Harcourt Courtley.

CHANGE IN SCHEDULE TIME — To-morrow is the commencement of the extension of time for the overland stages. They will have an addition of six days or double the present time in which to make the trip through. We are assured, however, that no more time will be taken henceforth than will be absolutely necessary on account of the state of the roads.

SEWING MACHINES —It having become a necessity for every family to have a sewing machine, it will benefit the readers of this paper to gain some information as to the peculiar merits of the different kinds There are a great number and variety of styles and make, but few of them being considered first class. The Grover & Baker machines (during the past three years, especially since the new style machine made its appearance) have taken the lead, having received the premium at every State Fair held in the United States, when shown in competition with any others, it being considered the most practicable for general use, both as regards power, variety of work, strength of stitch, simplicity of movement, ease with which it is managed and learned, and the little noise it makes in its operation The elasticity of the stitch is a peculiar feature, as a person can sew flannel as well as any other kind of goods, and the stitch not break The machines making the single lock stitch will not stand the strain on the work that a double lock stitch will, the latter forming each stitch a perfect knot, and by cutting every fourth stitch, it cannot be unraveled, while the single stitch, having nearly one third less thread, will not stand the same strain, and is more easily unraveled One is a simple twisting of two threads, while the other is two threads tied up in knots As embroidery of all kinds of garments seems to be the prevailing fashion, the Grover & Baker machine comes directly into play, it being the only machine that furnishes the genuine Embroidery Stitch, and ladies can embroider

SEWING MACHINES.—It having become a necessity for every family to have a sewing machine, it will benefit the readers of this paper to gain some information as to the peculiar merits of the different kinds. There are a great number and variety of styles and makes, but few of them being considered first class. The elasticity of the stitch is a peculiar feature, as a person can sew flannel as well as any other kind of goods, and the stitch not break. The machines making the single lock-stitch will not stand the strain on the work that a double lock stitch will, the latter forming each stitch a perfect knot, and by cutting every fourth stitch, it cannot be unraveled, while the single stitch, having only one-third less thread, will not stand the same strain, and is more easily unraveled, being a simple twisting of two threads, while the other is two threads tied up in knots. As embroidery of all kinds of garments seems to be the prevailing fashion, the Grover & Baker machine comes directly into play, it being the only machine that furnishes the genuine Embroidery Stitch, and ladies can embroider with one two or three colors at the same time. The examination of Embroidery and Braiding at the Agency in this city furnishes a practical demonstration of their utility in these respects. The lately improved Braider keeps the braid under control so that the operator has simply to work the machine and follow the tracings of the pattern. With this machine there are no bobbins to wind, sewing as it does from the original spools. It would be well for any person purchasing a machine to examine the others as this ... themselves in regard to the points named. At the late State Fair held at Salem a committee of ladies appointed for that special purpose, after a thorough investigation decided the Grover & Baker machines to be the best for family and general use, and unanimously awarded them the first premium. They can be bought of the Agent here (Mr Pierson) at San Francisco prices, as an inducement for every family to possess so valuable an acquisition to their household effects.

MESSRS A L SCOVILL & Co—Gents. My wife had been troubled with debility and has had a constant pain in her side and at times a pain in her Breast which was procured from sewing. A Legend of the Rhine

[From the New York Commercial Advertiser

If I should be called on for a contribution to the Commercial Advertiser I think that I would tell the story of the brisk young Baron Buzfuz, who many years lived in an old castle on the Rhine How that he loved the Lady Ravenell, and paid his addresses to her but was rejected because she was of the opinion that he loved his brave old blood hound Dunder better than he loved herself In fact, the Lady Ravenell stated her suspicions to the Baron the correctness of which he made no attempt to dispute

"Reasons there are my lady " he would say, "that Dunder should come first in my affections, for he can hunt better than you can, he can run far faster through the forest than you can, and I have known him longer than I have you "

As the Lady Ravenell declined coming in competition with Dunder the Baron Buzfuz, as I have observed before, was a rejected suitor

But please observe now, how strange a turn the tide of affairs took As the Lady Ravenell was one afternoon riding through the dense, dark forest, she was waylaid and attacked by two armed assassins in masks One of them had just drawn a glittering poignard which he was about to plunge in the Lady Ravenell's breast, when Dunder, who happened to be roaming through the forrest on a tour of pleasure and observation, suddenly sprang upon the bloody assassin, and struck his fangs into his face and neck with such force as to compel a speedy surrender The accomplice or rather as it turned out, the principal in this murderous design, seeking escape by flight was also overtaken and wounded by Dunder, and on the mask falling from his face he was found to be a wild, reckless young baron who had aspired without success, to the Lady Ravenell's hand After a while the mellow horn of the Baron Buzfuz was heard resounding through the forest, when Dunder gave a long continued howl which the Baron evidently understood, for in a short time he made his appearance at the spot, where he found the two disabled assassins stretched upon the ground, and the Lady Ravenell almost dead from fright

Now, if I were really intending to tell the story, it would be proper for me to go on and state how that the Lady Ravenell, considering within herself that Dunder had saved her life, became exceedingly attached to him and in course of time consented to marry his master And they were married, the Baron Buzfuz and Lady Ravenell, and for nine long days the old castle was fairly alive with song and revelry Dunder was also an invited guest, and witnessed the whole ceremony from beginning to end, evincing his satisfaction by a prolonged smile which stretched his mouth open from ear to ear

And then I ought to relate, if I were absolutely undertaking to give the narrative how that a very curious jealousy arose in the family, a very twisted, complicated sort of an affair, as you may term it The Baron was jealous because he suspected that the Baroness loved Dunder better than she did him, and the Baroness was jealous because she very clearly perceived that the Baron retained his old preference for Dunder over herself And so it came to pass, a burning jealousy raged in the heart of each—for although the Baron really did love Dunder better than he did his wife, and the Baroness on her part loved Dunder better than she did the Baron, yet they were both uneasy because of the rival quadruped And here notice in passing, how glaring the selfishness of mankind and womankind appears in this Each one was willing to give the preference in love to Dunder, but at the same time required that the love of the other to himself or herself should be supreme Under such a whimsical and anomalous condition of affairs, it is certainly not to be wondered at that the lives of the Baron Buzfuz and his lady were involved in gloom and unhappiness

But this of course could not last forever, and each without the knowledge of the other, (and influenced by motives so contradictory as not to be susceptible of explanation, deputed a confidential servant named Grimswig to carry Dunder to a distant pond and drown him And if I were really engaged in relating so trifling but veracious a story as this, I should go on to inform you that they each happened to hit on the very same servant by whom to send the dog, and the very same day and the very same hour of the day

Now, after Grimswig had been gone with Dunder some four or five hours, the Baron and Baroness began to take a new view of the matter, and each felt guilty of a very cruel and disreputable act Each one of them, unknown to the other passed a most miserable night, and in the morning they concluded to make a clean breast of it The Baroness first opened the subject, and requesting to see her husband privately, she announced to him with a great appearance of remorse, that "she had something very particular to say to him "

"Ah, so have I to you," he replied

"Well, my dear," remarked the Baroness, "the dog "

"Yes," reiterated the Baron, "the dog "

"Sent off," said the Baroness

"Yes, sent off," sighed the Baron

"Yesterday by Grimswig," continued the Baroness

"Ah, yes," rejoined the Baron, "yesterday by Grimswig "

"To be drowned," whimpered the Baroness through her tears

"Yes, indeed," groaned the Baron, "to be drowned "

"Nev—nev—nev—never see poor Dunder again," blubbered the Baroness

"No, nev—nev—nev—never see poor old Dunder again," more loudly blubbered the Baron

"Can you forgive me, my dear Buzfuz?" asked the Baroness, in her most beseeching tones

"Forgive you?" exclaimed the astonished Baron, "why, I am the one who ought to ask forgiveness for I sent off the dog "

"You sent off the dog?" inquired the Baroness, now on her part perfectly astounded

"Yes, I sent off the dog "

"By Grimswig?"

"Yes by Grimswig "

"To be drowned?"

"To be drowned "

Then the odd coincidence of the whole affair at once flashed through their minds on which they both wept and begged forgiveness of each other, and after that, they kissed to make friends and vowed that they would never do such a silly wicked thing again

But when they thought of poor Dunder, drowned and dead, their tears flowed afresh, and the Baroness observed that although she now loved her dear Baron Buzfuz better than all the dogs in the world, yet she would be willing to set the old castle on fire, if she could only see poor Dunder again alive and well The Baron on his part affirmed that his dear Ravenell Buzfuz was dearer to him now a great deal than ever Dunder was but at the same time he would agree to go without lager bier all his life and drink nothing but wine, if he could only bring poor Dunder to life as easily as he had ordered him to be drowned

Strange to relate while they were condoling with each other in this melancholy manner, in rushed Dunder, looking just as brisk and lively as though he had never met with a watery grave in the whole course of his natural life In fact he never had for Grimswig was a wise old codger and very wisely concluded that these tiffs and jealousies among young married people meant little or nothing and hence he had merely shut Dunder in an outhouse, until about the time that he thought the dog might be wanted

The Baron and Baroness learned several useful lessons by this event

First—Never to be jealous

Second—Never to love man woman or child better than they loved each other

Third—Never to send old Grimswig off on the bootless, fruitless business of drowning a dog and especially such a dog as Dunder

AYER'S

CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

BRIMFIELD Mass 20th Dec 1855

DR J C AYER I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness Influenza and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold is your CHERRY PECTORAL Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints EBEN KNIGHT M D

A B MORTLEY, Esq of UTICA, N Y writes "I have used your PECTORAL myself and in my family ever since you invented it and believe it the best medicine for its purpose ever put out With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it or take any other remedy "

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.

SPRINGFIELD, Miss, Feb 7, 1856

BROTHER AYER I will cheerfully certify your PECTORAL is the best remedy we possess for the cure of Whooping Cough, Croup, and the chest diseases of children We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill and commend your medicine to our people HIRAM CONKLIN, M D

AMOS LEE, ESQ MONTEREY, IA, writes 3d Jan, 1856 "I had a tedious Influenza which confined me in doors six weeks took many medicines without relief finally tried your PECTORAL by the advice of our clergyman The first dose relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs less than one half the bottle made me completely well Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy and we esteem you, Doctor, and your remedies as the poor man's friend "

Asthma or Phthisic, and Bronchitis.

WEST MANCHESTER, PA, Feb 4, 1856

SIR Your CHERRY PECTORAL is performing marvellous cures in this section It has relieved several from alarming symptoms of consumption and is now curing a man who has labored under an affection of the lungs for the last forty years

HENRY L PARKS, Merchant

A A RAMSEY M D ALBION MONROE Co, Iowa, writes Sept 6, 1855 "During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your CHERRY PECTORAL for giving ease and relief to consumptive patients or curing such as are curable "

We might add volumes of evidence, but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon trial

Consumption.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cured so many and such dangerous cases as this Some no human aid can reach but even to those the CHERRY PECTORAL affords relief and comfort.

ASTOR HOUSE NEW YORK CITY, March 5, 1856

DOCTOR AYER LOWELL I feel it a duty and a pleasure to inform you what your CHERRY PECTORAL has done for my wife She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of Consumption from which no aid we could procure gave her much relief She was steadily failing, until Dr Strong of this city where we have come for advice recommended a trial of your medicine We bless his kindness as we do your skill for she has recovered from that day She is not yet as strong as she used to be but is free from her cough, and calls herself well

Yours with gratitude and regard,

ORLANDO SHELBY of Shelbyville

Consumptives do not despair till you have tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL It is made by one of the best medical chemists in the world and its cures all around us bespeak the high merits of its virtues — Philadelphia Ledger

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

THE sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed their utmost to produce this best, most perfect purgative which is known to man Innumerable proofs are shown that these PILLS have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines and that they win unprecedentedly upon the esteem of all men They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood and expel disease They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action and impart healthy tone with strength to the whole system Not only do they cure the every day complaints of every body but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects they are at the same time in diminished doses the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated they are pleasant to take and being purely vegetable are free from any risk of harm Cures have been made which surpass belief were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of my remedies while others have sent me the assurance of their conviction that my Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of my afflicted suffering fellow-men

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac containing directions for their use and certificates of their cures of the following complaints —

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints Rheumatism Dropsy Heartburn Headache arising from a foul Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion Morbid Inaction of the Bowels and Pain arising therefrom Flatulency Loss of Appetite all Ulcerous and Cutaneous Diseases which require an evacuant Medicine, Scrofula or King's Evil They also by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach such as Deafness Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with some other pill they make more profit on Ask for AYER'S PILLS, and take nothing else. No other they can give you compares with this in its intrinsic value or curative powers The sick want the best aid there is for them and they should have it.
